

Via Appia in Luigi Canina's tables

Subject

Tables from the 1853 majestic work of Luigi Canina: the first part of the Via Appia from Porta Capena to Boville described and demonstrated with the surviving monuments by the commander L. Canina, after excavations and other works carried out for the papal government's laudable order from 1850 to 1853 to promote the restoration; Vol. I Description; Vol. II Monuments.

Vol. I "Table I First part of Porta Capena at the 6th mile.

Vol. I "Table II Second part of the Via Appia Antica's topography from the 4th to the 8th mile.